The Senior Surgeon was accordingly asked and in reply he states that it has been the practice to give treats on special occasions. Such treats were given on two former occasions viz the Diamond jubilee and His Highness the Nizam's Majesty and as His Highness' installation was also a special occasion he, in consultation with the President of the City Municipality and on the precedents referred to above gave a treat to the inmates. On the occasion of the Diamond jubilee the Ld Commissioner sent him Rs 100/- and on the other occasion the Secretary sent him Rs 100/- (Vide Dch. No. 461 of 22-3-01)

the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore, for providing a treat to the inmates. And again on the occasion of His Highness The Maharaja's wedding, a similar treat was given and the cost of the same viz Rupees 100/- was sent by the Secretary to the Government with his No. 461. D.C dated 22nd March 1901.

As His Highness' Installation was also a special occasion and one which ought not to pass without any rejoicings by the inmates, I, in Consultation with the President of the City Municipality, and on the precedents already referred to, ordered a treat to be given as usual.

Under these circumstances, I request that you will be so good as to obtain Sanction of Government for the payment of Rs 100/- the Cost of the treat at an early date.
